

Line it Up! A Guide to Ribbons at SLC

You always see all those multicolored ribbons on nametags at SLC and now, here's your way to find out what they mean and how you can earn your own!

Ribbon	How to get one:	Where to go from here:
	Working with another CTSO, complete a project to improve food availability and/or education of your community and apply for recognition by March 1	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/programs/feed-nebraska/
	Be a chapter officer at your local chapter	Check with your adviser to take on one of these leadership positions
	Complete all 5 units of Power of One and apply for recognition by March 1	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/programs/power-of-one/
	Be an adviser for an affiliated Nebraska FCCLA chapter
	Be a State Officer	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/members/leadership-opportunities/
	Participate in one of the FCCLA Serves tours at SLC	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/events/state-leadership-conference/
	Achieve recognition as a Master Adviser, Adviser Mentor, or ACE by applying for recognition by March 1	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/awards/adviser/
	Reach out to your community to find new Circle of Friends Sponsors for Nebraska FCCLA and receive financial credit to attend SLC by February 1	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/support-fccla/circle-of-friends-2/

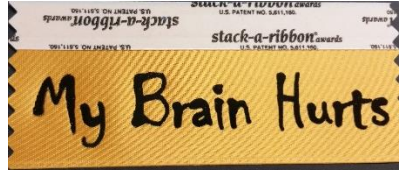

Line it Up! A Guide to Ribbons at SLC

	Submit your Chapter Spotlight by March 1 for the Red Leader to nebraskafccla@gmail.com	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/members/red-leader/
	Participate in a STAR Event Competition at SLC	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/programs/competitive-events/
	Complete any National Program and apply for State or National Recognition by March 1	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/programs/national-programs/
	Work to recruit others to the organization and increase your chapter's size this year	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/members/membership/
	Be a member of the State Peer Officer Team	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/members/leadership-opportunities/
	Submit this award application by March 1 to highlight your chapter's outstanding Program of Work	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/awards/chapter/
	Recruit members within the FACS classroom by having an intra-curricular chapter and apply for recognition by March 1	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/awards/chapter/
	Visit the Opportunity Fair on Monday of SLC in the Pinnacle Bank Arena Lobby	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/support-fccla/circle-of-friends-2/
	Advisers who serve as a member of the District Advisory Committee or the STAR Events Coordinator receive this designation

Line it Up! A Guide to Ribbons at SLC

 A yellow ribbon with the word "CANDIDATE" in gold, textured letters. The ribbon has a scalloped edge and "stack-a-ribbon" branding at the top.	Run for a State Officer or State Peer Officer Team Position	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/members/leadership-opportunities/
 A grey ribbon with the words "VOTING DELEGATE" in gold, textured letters. The ribbon has a scalloped edge and "stack-a-ribbon" branding at the top.	Sign up to be a voting delegate at SLC with your adviser and you will be responsible for casting votes for your chapter
 A yellow ribbon with the handwritten text "My Brain Hurts" in black. The ribbon has a scalloped edge and "stack-a-ribbon" branding at the top.	Participate in the FCCLA Knowledge Bowl with your chapter's team of 4	http://www.nebraskafccla.org/events/state-leadership-conference/
 A red ribbon with the words "BOARD OF DIRECTORS" in gold, textured letters. The ribbon has a scalloped edge and "stack-a-ribbon" branding at the top.	Advisers and FACS teachers who serve Nebraska FCCLA as members of the Board of Directors	