

Honorary Conference Assistant Application 2019 State Leadership Conference

Honorary Conference Assistants play a vital role in the operation and success of our annual State Leadership Conference. Conference Assistants must be seniors in high school with experience in the FCCLA organization. Honorary Conference Assistants must have attended an SLC previously. Members who are participating in STAR Events are not eligible.

Conference Assistants have the following responsibilities throughout the conference:

- Ensure correct AV and room set-up
- Ushers for sessions
- Assist with STAR as needed
- Assist with STAR line-up during Recognition
- Assist attendees in finding rooms
- Assist at the Opportunity Fair as needed
- Ensure individuals with assigned seating find their seats prior to sessions.
- Ensure proper dress and tickets at dance and will attend the dance

Failure to fulfill complete required tasks will result in the Honorary Conference Assistant Coordinator contacting the advisor and removal from the Conference Assistant Team.

Conference Assistants will receive their specific assignments at their Mandatory Orientation Session from 4:00 PM-5:00 PM on Sunday, April 7 at the Courtyard by Marriott. In exchange for their time, their conference registration will be reduced by 50%, they will receive a free state t-shirt, and will be provided with lunch on Monday.

Complete applications are due to the State Adviser by Sunday, February 10, 2019 at 11:00 AM and those who are chosen will be notified by Friday, February 15, 2019. Eight individuals will be selected as Honorary Conference Assistants this year. Applications should be filled in and sent electronically to the Honorary Conference Assistant Coordinator at clare.wilton@nebraska.gov

Thank you for your interest in serving Nebraska FCCLA and we look forward to working with you!
