

NEBRASKA
STATE ASSOCIATION

Distinguished Service Award

The Distinguished Service Award recognizes outstanding contributions and continuing service by individuals whose primary responsibilities are directly related to the organization's programs. Examples of those eligible for the Distinguished Service Award are local and state advisers, city and state supervisors of Family and Consumer Sciences, and teacher educators.

This award may be awarded to an individual who is not an active member but who has helped to advance the goals and purposes of FCCLA, such as teachers, teacher educators, state staff, school board members, college personnel, past FCCLA members not in high school at present, past or present state advisory board members or Board of Directors members, or other adults.
